Short presentation of your organization (key activities, experience)	Gdansk is peripheral city within Gdansk-Gdynia-Sopot Metropolitan Area, lying on the Bay of Gdansk, on the southern shores of the Baltic Sea. At the same time with the population nearing half a million Gdansk is the largest city and an important centre of the economic, scientific, and cultural life, and a frequented tourist location. Furthermore, Gdansk is the capital of the Pomeranian Voivodeship and a major Polish centre of economy and administration. Gdansk is also popular destination of many, mostly economic migrants. In response to this matter, in 2016 Gdansk municipality introduced an Immigrants Integration Model - the policy that provides solutions to support third-country nationals that decided to settle in our area. Two years later, in 2018, in purpose to widen our abilities in the subject of the support granted for persons that could be in danger of social exclusion, we introduced another policy - Model for Equal Treatment. Social Development Department is an entity responsible for introducing both of those policies. Currently our work is focused on introducing solutions within objectives presented in both of above-mentioned Models. Within the subject of immigrants integration we base on a work of 11 thematic groups concentrated around the subjects of education, culture, housing, social assistance, employment, violence, safeness, local communities, communication, health and sport. Together with cities' institutions, NGO's, inhabitants – also new

	inhabitants that are already settled or plan to do it, and other stakeholders, we conduct projects, working groups and initiatives with the aim of making our city more welcoming and friendly space for everyone – without any exceptions.
