Legal status and overall situation

- Roma people officially are recognized as National minority in Latvia;
- According to the Report of the Group of Experts on Social Cohesion Issues (2017) and the survey Rome in Latvia (2018), despite the improvement of the Roma overall situation, the Roma are still rightly regarded as a group of people exposed to the risk of poverty and social exclusion. They are discriminated against in the labor market, and their employment opportunities are not equal to other nationalities due to their low educational and socio-economic status. The level of Roma education among other ethnic groups remains at the lowest level.

- There are no Roma ghettos and ethnically segregated classes or schools in Latvia;
- The Roma group is too small:
  - to develop integration strategy specifically for this group;
  - to be attractive for political parties to address specific Roma interests, needs and situation;
  - to develop strong Roma civil society movement in order to protect their interests and needs; as well as lack of educated specialists;
- The Roma are marginalized group for majority population.

Challenges

- Lack of funding for Roma teacher’s assistants (Roma school mediators) and Roma community mediators, as well as institutionalization of Roma mediation practice at the local level;

Planned action: cooperation with municipalities and training Roma mediators and assistants;

- Limited Roma access to employment because of lack of education and prejudice towards Roma in mainstream society;

Planned action: cooperation with Roma civil society (mediators), the State Employment Agency and employers;

- The need for active Roma; there is some criticism from Roma people on Roma integration policy, proposals for improving situation and call for immediate action, but in fact their relatively low involvement and participation when targeted activities or measures are provided.

• Planned action: activities to involve and train more Roma activists.

- Lack of dialogue and cooperation between Roma and non-Roma NGOs.

• Planned action: joint projects.
