

NORTH CREATIVE NETWORK - FOR OPEN INNOVATION AND CULTURAL EXCHANGE

Project description: NORTH Creative Network (NCN) – for open innovation and cultural exchange will be developed by project partners from Latvia, Iceland and Norway in a result of the project activities, taking place in all three countries. The project mission is to contribute towards sustainable culture development by designing and building more accessible routes into the sector of creative industries.

The main aim of the project is to develop collaborative platform for fostering open innovation and cultural exchange between countries of Latvia, Norway and Iceland, and for providing artists, cultural organisations and other creative producers with more accessible routes into the sector of creative

Project activities:

1. Project management;
2. Creative Worklabs;
3. Innovation Festivals;
4. PR & Creative Networking.