Name	Sarajevo City Hall - Vijećnica
Short description	Sarajevo City Hall, known as Vijećnica, is located in the city of Sarajevo. Sarajevo City Hall is the most beautiful and most representative building built in Sarajevo during the Austro-Hungarian period and serves as a symbol of the encounter of world civilizations. It was built in Neo-Moorish style - the perfect architectural unity of the East and the West. The famous architect Karl Pařík deserves credit for this Neo-Moorish style. City Hall is a national monument, and its space is used for various protocol events for all levels of government, concerts, exhibitions, and different kind of events.
