countries and three events in Lithuania, Panevėžys city.

Topics:

We will promote the citizenship, review the politics of different countries and educate a creative society.

1. Event (2 days)

Topic: Volunteering in Europe. Can it be a business start? Good practise and possible challenges.

Workshop: Knowledge through practise.

Teamwork: Purification of ideas.

Homeworks for the next event.

2. Event (2 days)

Topic: The view and politics of European Union in making business that promotes citizenship. New opportunities.

It is a continued event in one of the partner's country. We hope to hear approaches to business and insights from citizens, politics and entrepreneurs that are from different countries.

Homeworks for the next event.

3. Camp (3-4 days)

Topic:

History of democratization in Europe. What is a civic behaviour? Can it help to create new forms of business? How to involve as much people as you can that have different experience, knowledge and skills? The principles of volunteering. Does the volunteering culture in Europe exists?

Participants will prepare for the next event and will get an opportunity to combine everything that has been said to create a idea for business.

4. Event (2 days)

Topic: From concept to prototype.

The main activities will be workshops and teamworks where necessary skill will be developed. Team from partners will start building actual prototypes. It is like hackathon where teams compete with each other and the best ideas are selected. At the end of the event teams will present their achievements and judges will conclude the event.
